

BSA CLIMBING INSTRUCTOR TRAINING

Class Starts: Saturday, February 16, 2019 (3 day course)

Time: 8:30 AM – 5:30 PM Location: Long Beach Sea Base 5875 E Appian Way 90803

These are full days, bring your lunch and snacks. There will be learning activities during lunch.

REQUIREMENTS

Prior experience not necessary.

Fear of heights is desired, we'll teach you how to manage it.

Trained Instructors of BSA climbing / rappelling activities are capable, safety conscious teachers.

Willing to commit to supporting a minimum of 2 climbs per year.

Commitment letter required.

RSVP Signup & Pay Easily on the Web at www.LongBeachBSA.org/training

CLASSES

Climbing Instructor in Training	($40 training fee, Includes Training Manual)	Age 16 – 17
Climbing Instructors Level I	($40 training fee, Includes Training Manual)	Age 18 and older
Climbing Instructor Level II	($25 training fee, current experience Lvl 1)	Age 21 and older
Re-certifications (All Levels)	($25 training fee)

PROPOSED CLASS DATES: This is a 3 day class

February 16th, Saturday: Day One, Classroom Instruction, “Ground School”

Instruction on, equipment, knots, EDGE, Merit Badge, equipment care, anchors, health and safety, dealing with fear, age appropriate guidelines, commands and techniques, Plan, Setup for climbing.

(To be determined in class): Day 2 “On Rock” , Stoney Point

Practical time on rock. Anchor systems, Rappelling, Climbing, Belaying, and Rescue techniques.

(To be determined in class): Day 3 “Final Exam – On Rock” , Joshua Tree

You will be responsible for Planning, Setup, and Leading a small group climbing/rappelling outing.

For more information Contact: Howard Ito , 562-547-0107 or email: Hitofam@Verizon.net