

BSA CLIMBING INSTRUCTOR TRAINING

Class Starts: Saturday, February 10, 2024 (beginning of 3 day course)

Time: 8:30 AM – 6:30 PM

Location: Long Beach SeaBase (first day of class)

There will be full days, bring your lunch and snacks. There will be learning activities during lunch.

REQUIREMENTS:

Prior experience not necessary. Fear of heights is desired, we'll teach you how to manage it. Trained Instructors of BSA climbing / rappelling activities are capable, exercise good judgment, dependable, safety conscious, and works well with others. Must be currently trained in BSA Youth Protection, State AB-506 compliant, and registered with BSA. Willing to be active, and committed to supporting Unit/District/Council events. Must attend all days of training sessions, and meet proficiency requirement at the approval of Trainer.

Signup & Payment: LongBeachBSA.org/training/

Climbing Instructor in Training	($50 training fee, Includes Training Manual)	Age 16 – 17
Climbing Instructors Level I	($50 training fee, Includes Training Manual)	Age 18 and older
Climbing Instructor Level II	($50 training fee, must be current Lvl 1 instructor)	Age 21 and older
Re-certifications (All Levels)	($30 training fee)

 Additional fees may apply.

Climbing Instructor CLASS DATES: Students must attend all 3 days of classes, and complete requirements.

Dates may change dependent on adverse weather conditions, but you will be notified.

February 10th, Saturday : Day One, LB-Seabase, Classroom Instruction, “Ground School”

Instruction on: equipment, knots, EDGE, Merit Badge, equipment care, anchor systems, health and safety, dealing with fear, age appropriate guidelines, commands and techniques, Plan, Setup for climbing.

February 11th, Sunday : Day 2 “On Rock” , Stoney Point

Practical time on rock. Anchor systems - practical, Rappelling, Climbing, Belaying, and Rescue techniques.

February 17th, Saturday : Day 3 “Final Exam – On Rock”, Location TBD. You will be responsible for Planning, Setup, and Leading a small group climbing/rappelling outing.

For more information Contact: Howard Ito , 562-547-0107 or email: Hitofam@Verizon.net